Applicants for operators' licenses must meet the following qualifications:

- The applicant must be at least 18 years of age when the license is issued.
- Subject to Wisconsin's Fair Employment Law, ch. 111, Wis. Stats., the applicant must not have been convicted of a felony or be a habitual law offender. Wisconsin's Fair Employment Law prohibits the denial of a license based on a pending arrest or conviction record unless the record substantially relates to the licensing activity.
- The applicant must have successfully completed an approved responsible beverage server training course. A list of approved courses is available at revenue.wi.gov.
- Applicants are not required to complete the training course if they are renewing an existing operator's license, have completed the training course within the last two years, or have held a retail license, manager's license, or operator's license anywhere in Wisconsin within the last two years.
- A license is valid only in the municipality where issued, but it may be used at any premises within that municipality.
